Soccer Camps

LEARN FROM THE BEST

Come and experience a fun and challenging soccer camp at one of the best soccer programs in the Northwest.

The Cougar soccer team has established themselves as on the premier junior college teams in the country, winning Northwest championships in 2004, 2005, 2007, and 2009.

ABOUT COACH JANINE SZPARA

Szpara was a four-time NCAA Division 1 first team All-American goalkeeper for Colorado College where she helped lead the Tigers to the NCAA title match in 1986 against North Carolina her freshman season. Szpara garnered multiple collegiate honors during her four years with the Tigers including '86 NCAA tournament Most valuable Defensive Player her freshman season and Adidas Goalkeeper of the year during her senior campaign. Her field accolades led to her induction into the Colorado College Hall of Fame in 1995 as a player and her '86 team followed as an inductee in 2006.

Szpara was a member of the U.S. National Team during the 1986-87 seasons. Her '86 U.S. team was honored with an induction into the U.S. Soccer Hall of Fame in 2007. Following college, Szpara continued to be a member of the U.S. National pool from 1988-1991. She then turned pro and played professionally, earning all-star honors, in Japan with the Shiroki Serena from 1995-99. Following Japan, Szpara returned to the U.S. and played a season with Foothill F.C. in 2000 and with the Women's United Soccer Association's San Jose Cyberrays from 2001-02.

Szpara's extensive coaching career extends back to 1989 where she was an assistant at both Stanford ('89-90) and Cal ('90-'92). Szpara also had a brief assistant coaching stints at Cornell University ('00), Santa Clara University ('02), San Jose State University ('03) and Warner Pacific ('04-'06)
